

JAMAICA

No. 22 - 2013

I assent,

[L.S.]

Governor-General.

31st day of August 2013

AN ACT for the incorporation of the Mustard Seed Missionaries and the vesting of property in the body so incorporated.

WHEREAS persons inspired by the healing ministry of Jesus Christ, have been associated together under the name "The Mustard Seed Missionaries" for the purpose of living and spreading the good news of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, as taught by the Roman Catholic Church, among the poorest of the poor, and for the purpose of uplifting the most vulnerable members of society, especially the sick, disabled and abandoned children, through the works of caring, sharing and training:

AND WHEREAS the Mustard Seed Missionaries is bound by its own statutes as a legitimate canonical entity as understood by the Roman Catholic Church, having been canonically erected by the proper authority in Rome as Public Association of the Faithful of Diocesan Right with juridical personality:

AND WHEREAS property, both real and personal in Jamaica, used for religious, charitable and educational purposes, is held or possessed by diverse persons in trust for or for the benefit of or on behalf of the Mustard Seed Missionaries:

AND WHEREAS it is deemed desirable and expedient that the Mustard Seed Missionaries be created as a corporate body with perpetual succession in which should be vested all real and personal property already and hereafter to be acquired in Jamaica for and on behalf of the Mustard Seed Missionaries and that such incorporated body shall have the power to acquire, hold, deal with, mortgage or dispose of the said real and personal property for the purposes of the Mustard Seed Missionaries and be possessed of such other powers by this Act conferred:

[31st day of August 2013]

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Representatives of Jamaica and by the authority of the same as follows:—
